

Chance Trahan Cracks Down On Political Extortion

Nancy Pelosi And Donald Trump Feud Over Business Stimulation Packages For Profit And The Unofficial Sheriff Of Clark County Las Vegas Nevada Is Not Having That At All

POMONA, Calif. - April 16, 2020 - PRLog -- Partisanship is at play, and you'd better believe that Chance Trahan, the unofficial Sheriff at large, has something to say about all of this, "This is the big show that we've all been waiting for. You're watching the big partisan agenda playing out before our very eyes. The coronavirus scam was just the incumbent politicians setting the stage for a much larger act. This is Political Extortion!"

"As a Presidential Candidate, I've heard people say lots of things about the coronavirus. The only problem is that they're not sure what's going on when they speak on the subject, however, I know exactly what I'm talking about. The difference is vast. When someone mentions the coronavirus, their comments are uneducated at best, and no matter how many times I say they're wrong, they still feel like offering up what they think. I don't mind hearing them out, however, the bigger picture is what's more important to focus on," says Sheriff.

"Over here, we've got faked virus death stats. The numbers were boosted to make the issue seem more dramatic, and people are really pushing these stats as facts. And over here, we have Nancy Pelosi and Donald Trump at odds yet once again. This time it's to start drama over the Business Stimulus Bailout. We've forgotten all about gloves, and I know this because I'm seeing food industry workers handle and deliver products without wearing any. They're respecting the distancing order, however, they're touching several things and then handing you your food upon arrival with no gloves. There's obviously not any kind of emergency like the incumbent Politicians are suggesting," adds Trahan.

Chance advances, "This is how they profit. By extorting businesses on the issues that they make flop on purpose, then hold for ransom, just so business owners will pay the "mob tax" that they're imposing. It's a nasty game where the only ones who win are the Politicians. The bigger the issue, and the more intensely they can argue their points, the more they can profit at the private events held by the incumbents that they expect you to show up to with check in hand. The incumbents have their family members doing all their dirty work, they don't even dirty their hands, so they never get caught. What's even worse is that they also profited off of the economy crashing by placing put-option trades on businesses. Disney is probably the company they're profiting from the most. But now you know this, and together we can end this once and for all."
