

Chance For President Supporters Are Armed With The Truth

The Permanent Political Class Can't Do Anything Without Their Commanding Officer's Input

LAGUNA BEACH, Calif. - June 6, 2020 - PRLog -- Trump supporters are so easily manipulated. They're full of self loathing. They're almost as easily manipulated as George Soros's victims. Better yet, they're even easier to manipulate, because you don't have to even pay them to do their dirty work. You have to give George Soros's victims at least $25 an hour, or a $200 flat fee and they'll do just about anything you ask them to. They don't work for free and they're far more needy than a Trump supporter. They also require more tools and tactical equipment. With that said, are Soros and Trump really at war, or are they actually on the same side? That's what the Nonpartisan Presidential Candidate, Chance Trahan, is suggesting.

"A Trahan supporter bears no weight on their shoulders, because they're armed with the truth. They don't have to participate in looting and violence to prove their point. They're a lot smarter than both Trump and Soros supporters. If you look at Soros and Trump's history, you'll discover that they've often worked together. And what's worse is that Trump also has history with Al Sharpton. What's even more shocking than him having history with both Soros and Sharpton, is the fact that he also has history with Jeffrey Epstein and Hillary Clinton. And if that wasn't enough to raise suspicions, Donald also joined Soros in donating to Hillary Clinton's re-election," the people's Sheriff says.

Trahan for President has absolutely had it with the Black Lives Matter drama that's continued to invade his personal life.

Chance explains, "This whole reality TV show plot being played out is everywhere you look. It's taken over websites, news outlets, social media, video games. Give me a break. Give us all a break from your big huge ridiculous cry for help. The Permanent Political Class can't do anything without my input. And they're misbehaving all over the place. Have you seen them praying to satan yet? Wearing masks and kneeling in praise of black lives, and saying they matter. Don't take what I'm saying the wrong way either. When I say black lives, you need to remember that they're praising their dark master and it's got nothing to do with African-Americans. They're saying that those who pray to lucifer matter. This is God's land. It's time to put God back into our nation. Our nation was built under God and these pathetic excuses for Politicians better respect that. I'm not a very understanding and compassionate person when it comes to people denying God. That's the unforgivable sin."
